ITEMS OF INTEREST.

Lexington, Ky., May 29.—Collected with the anniversary of the funeral of her father, James W. Carter, a horseman, William Carter, his pretty eighteen-year-old daughter, tonight shot herself accidentally. It is said, in the right temple and died instantly. The affair occurred at the home of the girl's mother, Mrs. Leon Carter, a sister of Mrs. F. B. Ryan, of Central avenue, Cincinnati.

Frankfort, Ky., May 31.—Curt Jett, the notorious Breathitt county feudist, is giving his keepers at the Kentucky penitentiary considerable trouble these days. For failure to make his task he has been severely whipped, and that failing to accomplish the desired result, he has been placed in the prison dungeon in solitary confinement. Jett has been a good prisoner for months up to a few weeks ago. He is said to be laboring under the impression that he is being imposed upon and discriminated against in comparison with some of the other noted murder prisoners of the institution and has complained that he is given a much heavier task than he is capable of performing.

U. H. Morgan, of Clark county, has a cow of recent birth that has no udder at all.

Mr. Thomas Childs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Childs, and Simon Morgan son of Mrs. Amy Clark, each are only fourteen years, but of Lexington school district No. 1, Clark county, successfully passed the recent common school examination and have received diplomas from the state.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

We are authorized to announce M. Redwine as a candidate to fill the unexpired term of two years as Judge of the 32nd Judicial District of Kentucky, composed of the counties of Elliott, Morgan, Carter and Lawrence, subject to the action of the Democratic party of said district.

We are authorized to announce J. B. Hannan, of Elliott county, as a candidate for Circuit Judge of the 32nd District, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Convention June 22nd.

As To Candidates.

The Big Sandy News has always maintained a neutral position in local races for Democratic nominations. Our readers may depend upon the fact that we are paid for the publication of every article that has any bearing upon the candidacy of any one, directly or indirectly. All candidates are given the privilege of using the columns on the same terms. The articles are published as advertising and do not carry with them the endorsement of the NEWS.

Owing to the emergency caused by the strike of 200 retort men for a 60 per cent. increase in wages, it was announced that natural gas would be turned into the pipes of Cincinnati Saturday.

The Court of Appeals, in passing on a case from Trigg county, decided that when the entire county has voted dry one precinct cannot hold a separate election to determine the sense of the voters in that district.

The War Department will award within a few days the contract for 20,000 white marble headstone to mark the graves of Confederate soldiers and sailors who died in Federal prisons and military hospitals in the North during the Civil war and who were buried near the place of their confinement.

When the Republican convention is held at Louisville, June 19, Eastern Kentucky will spring a dark horse in the gubernatorial candidacy of W. L. Hurst, of Campton. He is relying upon his wide acquaintance in the mountains to give him the solid backing of the Ninth, Tenth and Eleventh Districts.

Judge James Hargis will shortly begin the publication of a weekly Democratic paper in Jackson to replace the recently destroyed Jackson Hustler.

A Hair Dressing

If you wish a high-class hair dressing, we are sure Ayer's Hair Vigor, new improved formula, will greatly please you. It keeps the hair soft and smooth, makes it look rich and luxuriant, prevents splitting at the ends. And it keeps the scalp free from dandruff.

Does not change the color of the hair.

Formula with each bottle show it to your doctor. Ask him about it, then do as he says.

At the same time the new Ayer's Hair Vigor is a strong hair tonic, promoting the growth of the hair, keeping all the scales of the scalp in a healthy condition. The hair stops falling, dandruff disappears. A splendid dressing.

er. He has secured estimates from a Cincinnati type foundry, and will equip a plant at a cost of $5,000. It is said that Attorney A. H. Pollard, of Jackson, will assume the management of the new paper.

Greenup is the home of both a States Senator and a Representative in Congress—the only town in the state that is so honored.

It does seem as if there is no kick coming from the farmer just now. Cattle are bringing fairly good prices; hogs are high and promise to stay there; the lamb crop is abnormally large, and prices almost beyond precedent. Corn crops have been large for several years and the price is good. Dollar wheat and fifteen cent tobacco are both in sight; mule colts are bringing one hundred dollars; grown mules and horses are at big figures and other things are in proportion. Surely the tiller of the soil is coming into his own after many years.

Now that the first excitement of the approaching trial of Jurke James Hargis has passed, the city has assumed its normal condition and the time is taken up with games of marbles. For, incredulous as it may seem, the most popular form of amusement for all classes of people in Sandy Hook is playing marbles; men, women and children alike dot the public square here engaged in the game. Bowling, tennis and croquet have not reached this county, and it is an ordinary thing to see a girl of sixteen playing marbles on the public square with a man of sixty. The practice that the men players have had makes them adepts at the game, and it is nothing for an aged grandfater to pick out an agate at a distance of thirty feet.

Judge James Hargis spent much of his time in the courthouse yard playing marbles with a number of boys. County officials and farmers join in the game.—Correspondent Louisville Times.

PROSPERITY.

As usual a very large crowd attended church at Brushy Sunday. Mrs. Hester Curnutte, of Portsmouth Ohio, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Susa Morris, of this place. Miss Ella Short has returned home after a long visit to her sister at Louisa.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Moore were visiting his brothers at Charley Saturday and Sunday, and also their sister, Mrs. Jeff Ball, of Mattie.

Mrs. J. H. Thompson, of Louisa, is visiting her father at this place. Little Ella Jay Huette is on the sick list. Also, Frank Evans' little baby.

Mrs. Kate Wilson was shopping in Louisa Monday.

A man of this place passed down Little Blaine the other day inquiring for J. M. Berry and they said that he had gone visiting, but didn't know where. We hope he will make his return all right.

We learn that Jeff Ball, of Mattie, has had bad luck in the poultry

Black Eyes.

The Catlettsburg Tribune relates that a Big Sandlian running for his train dropped a bottle of red-eye and a big pistol. Since the unexpected constitutes humor there's nothing funny about that—Portsmouth Blade.

Not? Admitted. But out of the number of Big Sandlians who tote pistols, the fact that one of them actually dropped his, is an incident so rare as to be worthy of note.

Catlettsburg Tribune.
When will Big Sandlians cease totting red-eye and big pistols, and when will newspapers in puerile attempts to be funny cease to say, by implication, that the habit is confined to this section?

HUNTINGTON, W. VA.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

A very sad accident occurred at the home of Nipp Scott, at old Olive Hill. It seems that their daughter Naud picked up a rifle, and while examining it it went off, the ball going through her mother's arm and into her side inflicting a dangerous wound.

Charles Baker, a cigar maker of Maysville, who was thought by his friends to be in the last stages of consumption, was relieved of thirty-two feet of tapeworm Saturday morning. He had only a few days ago passed sixteen feet, making a total length of forty-eight feet.

Owingsville, Ky., May 31 — When Sarah Baker, aged 18 years of old Ohio, attended a circus here yesterday, she heard a report that caused her to go directly to the home of William Jones as soon as the performance was over. A violent quarrel followed, and the wife of Jones ran for help. When she returned with her husband, Jones was found on the ground, his throat cut from ear to ear, and was practically dead.

Jones had died. Near the body his razor, covered with blood, was found. The police have not yet identified him. A brother of Jones was charged for murder, but a new charge was made. The trail of the father being followed by local police.

At Bethel Church near Olive Hill, where Memorial services were in progress Thursday, Ed Lambert, son of Ben Lambert shot and killed Matt Jones, daughter of John Jones, of Spokely Valley. The death was instantaneous, no word or movement coming from her after the shot was fired.

Miss Jones was some distance from Lambert at the time and he said the shooting was entirely accidental. There was considerable excitement over the shooting and the large crowd which had collected made many threats of violence.

Lambert was arrested and taken to Olive Hill by one officer with a gun and paroled with the excited crowd. He was taken to Grayson on the afternoon train and placed in jail.

About dark a telephone message came from the Hill stating that a dead body of about two hundred pounds had left town and were headed for Grayson. Officials at Grayson tried to verify the report but were unable to do so since the telephone line does not follow the route which a body would have traveled. After some deliberation, however, it was thought best to take the prisoner out of jail and place him under guard for safe keeping.

Lexington, Ky., June 3 — Commonwealth's Attorney John M. Wanch of Grayson who will conduct the prosecution of Judge James Hanks and others, charged with the murder of Dr. H. D. Cox, had the case scheduled for trial at San Francisco. In July he held a conference with Attorneys Bird and Louett in Winchester relative to the situation of Judge John A. Hanchett as presiding judge. T. P. Carbow, Jr. of Jackson brother-in-law of the murdered man who has labored for several years securing evidence against the men he believes guilty of proving the assassination, was also present at the conference.

At the conclusion of the conference Mr. Wanch addressed a letter to Gov. Beckham in which he asked the Chief Executive not to issue a commission to Judge Hanchett on the ground that the selection was not suitable to the counsel associated in the prosecution.

The names of Judge M. C. Scott, Jr., of Stanford; Judge W. H. Moody, of Erlington; and Judge H. B. G. Gwanton, were mentioned by Attorney Wanch as being acceptable to the prosecution and the Governor was asked to commission one with one or more of these jurists to ascertain if they would accept the appointment.

Don't Neglect It

It is a serious mistake to neglect a weak heart. It is such a short step to chronic heart disease. When you notice irregularity of action, occasional short breath, palpitation, fluttering, pain in chest or difficulty in lying on left side, your heart needs help—a strengthening tonic. There is no better remedy than Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. Its strengthening influence is felt almost at once.

"I have used 10 bottles of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and can truthfully say it has done me more good than anything I have ever used, and I have tried nearly everything that I know of. The doctor who attended me asked me what I was taking and I told him Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, he said it was not going to do me any good, but it did. I have not taken any for a year now, and while there is occasionally a slight symptom of the old trouble, it is not enough for me to continue the use of the medicine. If I should get worse I would know what to do. Take Dr. Miles' Heart Cure as I did before. I consider myself practically cured of my heart trouble."

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails he will refund your money.

"Kado."

Sergeant, Ky., June 1. No crime of recent years in this locality has so stirred this section of Kentucky as the murder of Mrs. Ellen Planery, at Port Creek, four miles from here, where Floyd Frazier, an eighteen-year-old boy, was confessed.

Frazier is now in Pineville Jail, under a special guard of citizens, to prevent his being lynched.

Mrs. Planery lived alone with her four small children. She went out on the mountain to gather some greens for dinner, and Frazier lay in wait for her. He had apparently no motive except a savage desire to murder. The woman struggled when attacked. He told her with a stone and struck blow upon blow.

He then cut her throat and stabbed her repeatedly in the breast. He then hid the body in a drain. The woman's children waited all night and pail of the next day. Then the neighbors were apprised and the body found. Posses searched for the murderer, Frazier himself joining in the search, still clad in his blood-stained clothes. Suspicion pointed to him, and he was placed under arrest. His bloody clothes were found at his home, and then he confessed, but cleared his mother, who, it is thought, was implicated. He was then hurried to Pineville to save him from the mob. A special term of the Letcher County Court will be convened in three weeks to try the youthful murderer.

J. P. Lake, lumberman, aged 69 years, was found prostrate near the Atlas mill on Four Pole creek, Sunday morning, the butt of a 6 inch pine fastened firmly into his chest. He was dead and had been lying in the same position since four o'clock Saturday afternoon.

The accident is one of the most peculiar that ever happened in Caswell county, W. Va.

Lake had evidently cut the tree down and then stood aside to let it fall. The tree had apparently fallen on his limbs, then rebounded, the butt being driven straight into Lake's breast. Being old, he had not been quick enough to step out of the way and had been pinned in such a way that he could not help himself.
